

Boston University Palestine Film Festival: "Jerusalem: The East Side Story"

2nd annual Boston University Palestine Film Festival is proud to present cultural and political films about life in Occupied Palestine.

On opening night, we will be showing "Jerusalem: The East Side Story" which is an excellent visual and oral history of Jerusalem and Jerusalemites, from Lord Balfour to Israel's current efforts to "Judaize" the city through cordoning Palestinians into walled cantons and pursuing a policy of ethnic cleansing.

Films will be running all week (Oct 12-15) at a different on-campus location (see full schedule listed below). Light refreshments will be served at all showings.

Schedule for the Week

Tuesday October 12: Jerusalem: East Side Story, 7-9PM, GSU Back Court;

Wednesday October 13: To Shoot an Elephant, 7-9PM, CAS 211;

Thursday October 14: Double Feature: 25,000 Tents and Thyme Seller, 7-9PM, SED 130;

Friday October 15: Jenin, Jenin, 7-9PM, CAS 211.

When Tuesday, Oct 12, 2010 at 7:00pm until 9:00pm on Tuesday, Oct 12, 2010

Where George Sherman Union, 775 Commonwealth Avenue (GSU Backcourt)

Who Open to General Public
Admission is free

More Info For more information, check out the Facebook event page

Contact BU Students for Justice in Palestine
Katherine Knight
kknight@bu.edu

NIS

RETURN