Subject: RE: Prof. Klein's unlawful webpage

Dear Ms. Rossman-Benjamin,

To follow up on our conversation last Friday October 4th, which occurred after receiving and reviewing your most recent letter addressed to President Harrison, let me reiterate that although Klein's link is on his faculty web page, he nonetheless has not violated Education Code 89005.5 because he has not used nor invoked the CSU name in support of his viewpoint. Klein's work is his work alone, and does not carry the agreement, support or endorsement of CSUN, its president, nor the Chancellor and Board of Trustees.

As we have corresponded on this matter several times, it is now time to move forward in the absence of any new developments.

Sincerely,

Andrew Jones

Subject: Re: Prof. Klein's unlawful webpage

Dear President Harrison,

You state unequivocally that “we do not consider Education Code 89005.5 or any part thereof to have been violated in any way” by Professor Klein’s CSUN-hosted "Boycott Israel Resource Page". You make that statement, despite the new evidence of September 25 that the Trustees did not give permission to Prof. Klein for the name of the University to be displayed in connection with "the support, endorsement, advancement..of..boycott.”

According to the law, without permission from the Trustees, a CSUN website advocating boycott is a potential misdemeanor. As such, it is not protected speech.

Yet, you dismiss this issue without explanation.

We call on you to explain to us, as well as to Jewish community members and California taxpayers, why you contend that California Education Code 89005.5 has not been violated.

We believe that you, as President of a California State University campus and a public servant of the State of California, owe us an explanation.

Sincerely,
